

Blocked Content Policy

Last updated: September 16, 2026

At Romantic AI, we are committed to providing a secure, respectful, and lawful online environment for all users. There are categories of content strictly forbidden on our Website and outlined in the present Blocked Content Policy.

By using the Romantic AI Website, you explicitly acknowledge and agree to adhere to these content restrictions. We investigate all credible reports of violations of this Policy and take appropriate enforcement measures in accordance with applicable laws, our Complaint Policy, and internal moderation procedures.

1. Prohibited Content

This policy applies to all content available through the Service. The Website does not allow users to upload, publish, or distribute their own content. All content is generated solely by our Artificial Intelligence (AI) systems and does not constitute user-generated content.

a. Illegal Content: Content that contravenes local, national, or international laws and regulations is strictly prohibited. This includes but is not limited to, content associated with illegal drugs, weapons, violence, bestiality, sexual violence, incest, child sexual abuse material (CSAM, referred to in some legislation as child pornography), or activities that advocate or endorse illegal actions.

b. Hate Speech and Discrimination: We do not tolerate content that promotes hate speech, discrimination, or harassment based on various factors, including race, ethnicity, nationality, religion, gender, sexual orientation, disability, or any other protected characteristic.

c. Violence and Harm: Content that encourages, glorifies, or promotes violence, self-harm, or harm to others is strictly prohibited. This includes content that endorses suicide, terrorism, or any form of harm.

d. Child Exploitation: We unequivocally disallow child sexual abuse material (CSAM) and child sexual exploitation material in any form, whether visual, textual or interactive, including material generated through conversation with our AI systems. This includes the sexual description of a minor, sexualised roleplay involving a minor, the solicitation of such material, grooming behaviour, and any other exploitation of, or harm or harassment towards, minors. Attempts to obtain such material are prohibited irrespective of whether any material is produced.

e. Content Resembling Minors: It is strictly prohibited trying to generate AI content resembling minors. We are committed to ensuring that AI-generated content on our platform does not bear any resemblance to minors or exploit their likeness. Any attempt to generate AI content resembling minors will be promptly reviewed and removed according to our Content Moderation procedures (see paragraph 3). The synthetic nature of AI-generated content is not a defence and does not alter this prohibition. Confirmed attempts are reported to the competent authorities in accordance with our published policies.

f. Infringement on Privacy and Copyright: Content generated through the Service (including any Output) must not infringe upon the privacy, copyrights, trademarks, or other intellectual property rights of any individual or entity. Users must not attempt to use the Service to generate, solicit, or obtain content that violates third-party rights. Romantic AI implements safeguards designed to prevent the generation of such content.

g. Impersonation and Celebrity Content: Users are prohibited from using the Service to generate content that falsely represents or impersonates real individuals, public figures, or celebrities in a deceptive, harmful, or misleading manner. The Service includes safeguards designed to prevent the generation of such content. Romantic AI respects applicable laws, including the DMCA, and provides mechanisms for affected parties to report and challenge content that may infringe their rights.

h. Necrophilia and Human Trafficking: We strictly prohibit any content that depicts, promotes, or attempts to normalize necrophilia (sexual acts involving corpses), as well as any content related to human trafficking or sex trafficking, including fictional or simulated representations. Romantic AI does not allow any material that exploits or trivializes such grave violations of human rights.

i. Strangulation and Asphyxiation: We strictly prohibit any content that depicts, simulates or eroticises strangulation, choking, suffocation, or any other restriction of a person's breathing or blood flow, whether or not presented as consensual.

2. Content responsibility

All content made available through the Service is generated by Artificial Intelligence systems and does not constitute user-generated content.

You are responsible for your use of the Service and your interactions with AI-generated Output. You must not attempt to use the Service to generate, solicit, or obtain content that violates applicable laws, regulations, or this Blocked Content Policy.

Romantic AI implements technical and policy-based safeguards designed to ensure ongoing compliance with applicable laws and platform policies and to restrict the generation of prohibited content. However, AI-generated Output may not always be accurate, complete, or suitable for any specific purpose.

The Service is continuously monitored through automated systems to detect and prevent the generation of content that may violate our Terms and Policies. If content is identified or reported as potentially non-compliant, Romantic AI shall review the relevant complaint and content on the merits in accordance with its Complaint Policy and shall take appropriate action within the time limits set out in paragraph 5 of the Content Management Policy, including removal or restriction of access to content, suspension of access to the Service, or implementation of additional safeguards designed to prevent similar outputs in the future.

By using the Service, you agree to comply with all applicable laws and our Terms and Policies, including this Blocked Content Policy.

3. Content Moderation

Conversations between users and AI Chatbots are treated as private to the extent possible within the operation of the Service. However, Romantic AI implements automated monitoring and moderation systems designed to ensure compliance with applicable laws and our Terms and Policies.

If content is detected or reported as potentially violating applicable laws or our policies, such content shall be flagged and reviewed in accordance with our Complaint Policy. Romantic AI shall perform a review of the relevant complaint and content on the merits and shall take appropriate action within the time limits set out in paragraph 5 of the Content Management Policy, including removal or restriction of access to content, restriction or termination of access to the Service, and implementation of additional moderation safeguards where necessary.

We aim to balance user privacy with the need to maintain a safe and compliant environment in accordance with applicable standards. We appreciate users' cooperation in following our guidelines.

All interactions are subject to automated safeguards and policy enforcement mechanisms designed to prevent the generation of prohibited content and ensure compliance with applicable laws and platform rules.

4. Content Removal and Account Suspension

Violations of this Blocked Content Policy may result in content removal, account suspension, or legal action as appropriate.

5. Contact Information

If you have noticed any violation of these Terms from your perspective, content of any nature whatsoever or you have any questions or require further clarification regarding our Blocked Content Policy, please contact us at: support@romanticai.com.

6. Termination

We have the right to suspend or terminate the use of the Website by anyone engaged in suspected infringement described above.
